Payment of Invoices

Invoices will typically be sent out a week after the funeral date (subject to third party costs being available.)

A 21 day grace period is given for payment of the funeral bill.

In the event that a bill is not likely to be paid within the 21 day period, contact by the payee is requested.

In the event that a bill payment is not forthcoming, subject to the funeral director's discretion, the debt may be passed to a collection's agency.

Interest will be charged to your account, and a flat rate percentage will be charged to cover third party costs.
